Proposal # 137683

Summary: In 2006, the park completed an in-depth survey of park users which identified that 68% of visitors are part of a family group. This project will improve the learning opportunities available to this large segment of the park's visitation by designing, fabricating, and installing new furnishings and other structures to create a dynamic and fun children's learning area in the North Cascades National Park Visitor Center. A puppet stage, touch table, bulletin board, books, and games will encourage children to explore, play, and learn in a special area of the Visitor Center designed specially for them and their families.
